HOP SCIENTIFIC MEETING

CO-CHAIRS:

NICOLAS RÜSCH (ULM UNIVERSITY, GERMANY)
& KRISTIN KOSYLYK (UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH FLORIDA, USA)

We warmly welcome you to attend our one-day scientific meeting following the “Hope and Recovery: The Power of HOP” conference. This scientific meeting aims to drive forward research on HOP and related programs, including an open invitation for research involvement and collaboration to new and established researchers and peers. Participants will have the opportunity to collaborate, share insights, and discuss challenges and solutions specific to HOP and related research. We hope this scientific meeting will inspire fresh perspectives, stimulate meaningful dialogue, and strengthen collaboration within our research community. This meeting is a hybrid format - we welcome in person and online participation.
